

2018 GENERATIONS IN JAZZ FESTIVAL CATERING FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

What meals will be provided at Generations in Jazz?

As of your registration the following meals are included:

- Friday: dinner
- Saturday: breakfast, lunch & dinner
- Saturday: breakfast and lunch

As part of the registration what is the value of the food component?

Regardless of your registration package selected the allocated breakdown for food is $55.00 which is GST inclusive.

Where do I collect my meals?

You will be able to collect your meals onsite within the GIJ Festival Precinct.

Breakfast will be provided at your accommodation venue prior to your arrival on Saturday and Sunday morning.

Lunch on Saturday will be collected by each school at the Lunch Pick Up location and distributed to students at their chosen meeting place. Each school will be allocated a specific collection time for this lunch based on breaks in school performance times. This time will be recorded in your registration bags. For students with special dietary meals your meals will also be in the school allocation and packed with all lunches for your school and marked accordingly.

Dinner on Friday and Saturday will be served at one of the dining venues. Upon arrival on Friday schools will be directed to these venues.

Note: All participants who select Special Diets will this year receive an envelope as part of their registration (collected on Friday). In each student's envelope will be the weekend's meal passes. For dinner on Friday and Saturday night you are to present these cards to the catering staff in the tent your school has been allocated.

Do you cater for people with special dietary requirements?

Yes – if we know about special dietary needs we are able to cater for them, but these must be specified by no later than Friday 30 March 2018.

In addition to the normal menu, those with significant dietary requirements will be catered for and meals will be supplied under "Special Diets" and include the following options:

Vegetarian, Gluten Free & Dairy Free as well as Vegan.

All meals will be prepared by the Barn Palais and distributed onsite at the Generations in Jazz Festival Precinct.

Note: For Special Dietary meals these will be collected at the same venue as your school's dining and no longer collected at a separate location.

Do any meals contain seafood?

No meals will contain seafood for those schools who are registered participants.

Please Note: Some independent food vendors may sell seafood onsite but purchase from these sites is at the individual's discretion/risk.

Do you have nuts in any of the foods on the menu?

Our meals are nut free to the best of our knowledge; however, we cannot guarantee a cross contamination which may occur outside of our kitchen; for example bread rolls may come into contact with nuts in the bakery.

If you have students who suffer from a nut allergy, we ask that they complete the Nut Waiver form which can be emailed to you if you contact catering@generationsinjazz.com.au.

In addition to the normal menu, those with significant dietary requirements will be catered for and meals will be supplied under "Special Diets".

Are there facilities for people bringing their own food?

Yes, there are microwaves and small fridges in the foyer area of the Barn for students to use at meal times.

If students opt to bring their own food this needs to be recorded on the form that is returned.

Where else can I purchase food?

The festival venue is located outside of Mount Gambier however a small number of catering vans will be on site should you wish to purchase extra food. Mount Gambier also has a variety of fast-food outlets and cafes which will be open for extended trading hours throughout the Generations weekend.

Who do I contact in relation to diet/catering requirements questions?

You are asked to make direct contact with The Barn who are sub contracted to cater for school participants at the festival. Please contact Bria Button on (08) 8726 9999 or email bbutton@barn.com.au
